

HEALING ARTS WORKSHOP

Kids Art: Dot to Dot

A Virtual Healing Arts Workshop

Kids love connecting the dots to see what kind of picture it will become! In this workshop, participants will draw random dots, connect them, find images within the drawing, then tell a story about it. Automatic drawing and storytelling help to release the emotions of grief without focusing on it.

Ages 6+. Kids are required to have an adult family member in attendance for this virtual workshop.

Tuesdays, April 27 and May 4, 6 to 7:30 p.m.

For these virtual workshops, we are using the Microsoft Teams platform, which is similar to Zoom. If you register for the workshop, you are sent an email invitation which provides a link to join the workshop. Each workshop consists of two sessions, a week apart. At the first session, a theme or topic is introduced, and we have a discussion. You will be given instructions on the art assignment for the week, and the basic supplies you will need will be shipped to you. We get back together the second session to share and talk about your art. The supplies will be new and yours to keep.

Call Mollie Borgione at 216.486.6544 or email mborgione@hospicewr.org to register no later than two weeks in advance of workshop date. Please make sure to include your home address so that supplies can be mailed to you.

We have waived our suggested $5.00 donation for supplies during the pandemic; However, if you wish to make a donation to the Healing Arts Program of Hospice of the Western Reserve, go to our website, hospicewr.org and click on Donate Now to find out how.

Healing Arts Workshops provide grieving people with a creative outlet for their grief and are open to the community. No art experience is necessary.
